ABOUT THE EDITOR

BELEZA CHAN is a Graduate Advisor with Educators for Fair Consideration (E4FC). She was born and raised in Brazil and has been living in the Bay Area for almost eight years. As the daughter of Chinese immigrants in Brazil and an immigrant herself in the United States, she has witnessed the struggles and difficulties of newcomers. She has seen how cultural and language barriers prevent even the most hardworking from successfully adapting, and how broken immigration laws also prevent high-achieving students from becoming active members in society. Beleza has worked towards social justice as a teacher of at-risk youth in San Francisco, a writer with ethnic media such as AsianWeek.com and New America Media, and a community organizer. She graduated with Phi Beta Kappa and Highest Honors from UC Berkeley.

ABOUT US

EDUCATORS FOR FAIR CONSIDERATION (E4FC)

E4FC's mission is to help immigrant students realize the American dream of college and citizenship. Specifically, we provide direct support and advocate for immigrant students who have grown up in the United States but face challenges due to financial need and immigration status. We offer a uniquely tailored suite of programs and services that address the financial, legal, political, professional, and socio-emotional needs of immigrant students who do not yet have permanent residency or citizenship in the United States.

For more information about Educators for Fair Consideration (E4FC), please visit www.e4fc.org.
